Dear Colleagues,

As we are getting close to the 14th Latin American Conference on Physical Organic Chemistry (CLAFQO-14, www.clafqochile2017.cl), to be held in Concón, Region de Valparaíso, Chile, from May 07 to 11, 2017, we have important news to announce.

Early Registration Fees

It gives me an immense pleasure to inform that it has been possible to establish an early registration fee until January 20th, 2017. The Conference registration fee includes access to all lectures, oral presentations and poster sessions, the conference printed material, as well as, lunches, coffee breaks, Welcome Reception and Conference Party. Each oral and poster presentation must be accompanied by the payment of, at least, one registration fee (Participant or Graduate student).
